

Please note my support for Xm Radio and their right to broadcast weather and traffic reports. How long will congress continue to be bought off by the Large Networks and Recording and Movie Industries who do nothing more than tear apart the Morals of this country and spit in our faces when we try to have decency for our children?